Just Jesus

Wednesdays on Zoom @ 7:00 pm (Jan. 6 – Feb. 10)

The Jesus of history and the Jesus of the Christian religion are often two very different people. We will be comparing the traditional thinking behind Jesus with the information about Jesus produced by scholars of religious history. How do we as Christians reconcile the different competing theories of who Jesus is and how does this conflict impact our faith?

The Color of Compromise

Sundays on Zoom @ 9:00 am (Jan. 10 – Feb. 14)

Black History Month (February) is a time to celebrate the achievements of African Americans and the central role of blacks in U.S. history. Using Jemar Tisby's book, The Color of Compromise, we will begin to explore the role of the American church as it pertains to black history. We will come to terms with how the American church has helped create and maintain racist ideas and practices.

Rediscover Jesus

Wednesdays on Zoom @ 7:00 pm (Jan 13 – Feb 10)

Begin the New Year by developing a dynamic relationship with Jesus with a study of the book Discover Jesus by Matthew Kelley. This book encourages us in our weariness, challenges us in our comfort, and invites us to rediscover the beautiful possibilities God places before us daily.

Contact office@firstpreswheaton.org to participate.

Short Stories by Jesus

Wednesdays on Zoom @ 7:00 pm (Jan. 13 – Feb. 17)

Based on the book by Dr. Amy Jill Levine, Short Stories by Jesus: The Enigmatic Parables of a Controversial Rabbi, this Bible study focuses on the parables of Jesus. Explore Jesus' most popular teaching parables, exposing their misinterpretations and making them lively and relevant for modern readers.
