Restoring Hope - The Song of Songs

Sundays, September 12, 19, 26 & October 3, 10, 17 at 8:30 am (First Presbyterian Church of Deerfield)

Join Dr. Brooke Lester, professor at Garrett Theological Seminary, as he unpacks one of the least understood books in the Bible: Song of Songs. The course is designed to help participants see how scripture can lift our spirits during hardships, whether during a pandemic or just life's bumps in the road.

The Color of Compromise

Sunday, September 26 at 4:00 pm (First Pres Libertyville in-person or on Zoom)

Join us for a discussion of Jemar Tisby's The Color of Compromise. This book is a powerful reminder of the Protestant church's complicity in racism as it traces racism from the days of slavery to the current BLM movement.

Love, Loss and Endurance

Sunday, September 19 11:00 am (Lake Forest in-person and live streamed)

Award-winning author and columnist Bill Tammus will be preaching on the 20th anniversary of 9/11. After worship, Bill will speak about the impact of losing a family member on Flight 11, religious extremism today, and how we can work to unplug it.

Explorations in Faith: Religious Extremism

Wednesdays, September 15, 22 and 29 at 7:00 - 8:15pm (in-person or by Zoom)

Join Pastor Clint for three Wednesdays to discuss the impact of Fundamentalism, Religion Extremism, and Violence across all faiths and what we can do to counter it, using Bill Tammus' book Love, Loss and Endurance as our guide.
