Explorations of Faith: The Contemporary Relevance of the Ten Commandments

Wednesdays 7:00 - 8:15 PM starting October 6 Lake Forest

An in-depth exploration of the contemporary relevance of the Ten Commandments using Adam Hamilton's "Words of Life: Jesus and the Promise of the Ten Commandments Today." All ages are welcome. In person and Zoom. Join Rev. Clint Roberts for a live discussion of Hamilton's book by calling 847-234-6250.

First Pres Anniversary Speaker Stephen B. Bright, "Finding Life on Death Row"

7:00 pm on Sunday, October 10, 2021 First Presbyterian Church Arlington Heights

Mr. Bright is the Harvey L. Karp Visiting Lecturer in Law at Yale Law School and former founder and director of The Southern Center for Human Rights, will share stories of representing Death Row defendants and how many became productive members of society as part of First Presbyterian Church of Arlington Heights' Annual Speaker Series.

Mr. Bright has been critical force in the criminal justice system and has dedicated his legal career to helping those facing the death penalty. A vivid storyteller, Mr. Bright will shine light on one of darkest corners of our criminal justice system by discussing how race and poverty play an important role in how capital punishment cases are investigated and prosecuted. Join us at 302 N. Dunton Ave, AH or firstpresah.org/experience/livestream.

The Church Post-Sunday School: How to Be Intergenerational and Why it Matters

Wednesday, October 20, 7:00 - 8:30 pm on Zoom Libertyville

Becoming intergenerational is an active choice that will enrich the faith of all God's people. We'll look at several ways to build community and nurture relationships across generations in worship, fellowship, education and service, as well as some of the compelling research that underscores the importance of intergenerational ministry. This class will be led by Wendy Claire Barrie, a writer, editor, speaker, Christian educator and author of Faith at Home: A Handbook for Cautiously Christian Parents. Contact Rev. Ryan Wallace at rwallace@boxp.net or (224) 207-7586 for more information.

The Naked Now

Oct. 24, 31 & Nov. 7, 14 8:30 - 9:20 am Deerfield

Maddie Gold, Ministry Assistant at Deerfield, will be teaching about Richard Rohr's book, The Naked Now. We will be invited to wake up to the spiritual reality all around. Drawing from the Gospels and the greatest Christian contemplatives, he shows us what it means to be spiritually awake. Richard Rohr invites us, all of us, to slow down and to find God, or be found by God, in all the places we never thought to look. Livestream at firstpresdf.org Contact Kathy Knezevic at Office@firstpresdf.org to become part of this important class.
